

Carrying Our Cross

Father, I give myself into your hands.
Do with me what you will.
Whatever you may do
I thank you.

Bl Charles de Foucauld

Rejoice always, pray without ceasing and give thanks to God at every moment.
This is the will of God, your vocation as Christians.

Thess 5:16-1

We adore you, O Christ
And we praise you

Because by your holy cross
you have redeemed the world.

And not only that, but we also boast in our sufferings,
knowing that suffering produces endurance,
and endurance produces character,
and character produces hope,
and hope does not disappoint us,
because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us. Rom 5:3

I am now rejoicing in my sufferings for your sake, and I am completing what is lacking in my flesh
of Christ's afflictions for the sake of his body, that is the church.

Col 1:24

For to me, living is Christ and dying is gain. Phil 1:21

He will transform the body of our humiliation that it may be conformed to the body of his glory, by the power that also enables him to make all things subject to himself. Therefore, my brothers and sisters, whom I love and long for, my joy and crown, stand firm in the Lord in this way.

Phil 3:21

*Bear one another's burdens, and so fulfil
the law of Christ.
Galatians 6:2*

Rom 12:10-15

The curtain shall separate for you the holy place from the most holy.

Ex 26:33

He was torn for our transgressions.
He was torn for our transgressions.
He was torn for our transgressions.
He was torn for our transgressions.

He was torn for our transgressions.
He was torn for our transgressions.

He was torn for our transgressions.
He was torn for our transgressions.

He was torn for our transgressions.

He was torn

We have confidence to enter the sanctuary by the blood of Jesus by the new and living way he opened for us through the curtain, (that is through his flesh), let us approach with a true heart... Heb 10:19, 20
