

Psalm 135

Evening Prayer Friday Week 3
verses 1-12 Morning Prayer Monday Week 4

This is an invitation to the assembly to praise YHWH, the Creator and Liberator of his people, Israel. The lack of any mention of a king suggests it is post-exilic. It abounds in quotations and traditional statements of faith.

Praying it as Christians we think of the risen Jesus; his power in creation (see John 1:3) and in liberation (see Matthew 28:18).

He was declared to be Son of God with power according to the spirit of holiness by resurrection from the dead, Jesus Christ our Lord.

– Romans 1:4

He must reign until he has put all his enemies under his feet.

– 1Corinthians 15:25

The invitation to join in praising YHWH is followed by an expression of faith in the fact that Israel is precious to YHWH. ‘Treasured possession’ in verse 4 translates the Hebrew s<sup>c</sup>gull [סְגֻלָּה], which occurs only here in the psalms and only 8 times in the Hebrew Bible. The classical text is in the Book of Exodus:

If you obey my voice and keep my covenant, you shall be my treasured possession out of all the peoples.

– Exodus 19:5

You are a people holy to YHWH your God; YHWH your God has chosen you out of all the peoples on earth to be his people, his treasured possession.

– Deuteronomy 7:6 (14:2)

Today YHWH has obtained your agreement: to be his treasured people, as he promised you, and to keep his commandments.

– Deuteronomy 26:18

They shall be mine, says YHWH of hosts, my special possession on the day when I act, and I will spare them as parents spare their children who serve them.

– Malachi 3:17

The other two texts are Ecclesiastes 2:8 and 1Chronicles 29:3. It speaks of something personal and something especially treasured by the owner.
